ALABAMA REPORTER.
THURSDAY MORNING, Jan. 28.

THE THOS. S. SMITH of Cycles, etc., has published a guide during my absence from the country.

Feb. 18th 1862. L. S. WHITE

In setting up the W. Huston's Ad last week, the printers left out a line. We published it this week correct.

See the Advertisement—Mr. M.
C. McAlpin, in two days past, Miss McAlpin, his daughter of Robert McAlpin, and a graduate of the Princeton Female Collegiate Institute, at this place.

We had eight or ten days of delightful weather.

A point anticipated.
The large force of Yankee cavalry that has been hogging about Center's landing recently has led to an apprehension of Yankees raid in this direction.— Our citizens and military authorities should be prepared for such a movement.

Mrs. T. D. Dickerson, wife of the Commissioner from the Mobile District, died recently in Clark county.

At Mooreville.

The latest news is to the effect that our cavalry have approached within four miles of Kosciusko, have captured 600 head of the one hundred wagons and a large number of property.

We write attention to the advertisement of Mr. John M. Stone, who has opened a Grocery establishment in Selma.— Mr. Stone is the former proprietor of Stone's Hotel, a clever and reliable business man.

At Home.

We have noticed quite a number of our friends from the army who are visiting their homes, short or long.
Joseph, the member of the Co., C. M. Smith, of the 20th Al., Lt.
Col. E. Sherrill, of the 10th, Lt.
Col. M. A. Slaughter, Capt. N. S.
McAfee, sub-Lt. Wm. L. Smith, of the 20th Maj. W. Wright, Capt. G. E. Miller, Gen. Parsons, Capt. Charles McNeil, Ed.
Ridgell, T. J. Chidester, Wilber Hogan, of the 2d Com., Lt. Col. 10th, and Lt. Col. S. S. St. George, of the 1st Spartans, Lt. Col. Wm. McGeorge, of the 1st Ala. Alts., Lt. Hardie, of the Ala.
Legion, Thos. Henderson, of the 10th.

There are doubtless others with whom we have not had the pleasure of meeting. All seem to be in the health and spirits.

FOUND.
A lady's saddle, for further information apply at the Office.

WATER IS BRITANNIA.—The single night of this dreadful country begins about the 20th of October; the sun then sets, and never appears till about the 10th of February. A glimmering indeed continues some weeks after the setting of the sun, through broken clouds and darkness broken by the light of the moon, which is as luminous as the full moon, and during this long night shines with guiding lustre. The cold strengthens with the new year, and the sun emerges in an unusual severity of frost.
By the middle of January the cheerful light grows strong, Arctic foxes leave their holes, and the polar bear roams in great numbers to their breeding places.
The sun sets no more after the 14th of May; the darkness of day and night is then less than ever before, and the sun comes to set on the horizon the date of September. After the middle of September it hardly distinguishes, and by the end of October takes a long farewell to this country; the earth becomes green, and winter reigns.

Contributions for the purpose of mounting Morgan's men have been made almost every place. We can hardly find a newspaper that does not contain accounts of liberal donations to this purpose.

A LARGE MAIL.—We learn the last flag of truce boats brought up over five thousand letters, addressed to various parties in the Confederacy.
The mail was received in the city yesterday.
The announcement that these letters brought no mail was a mistake.—Ex.

The Alabama Herald of the 8th inst. gives the arrival of the San Diego and Maine, with dates from the Confederacy to the 1st inst.

The ice on the Potomac is nearly five inches thick, and if the cold weather continues navigation will be suspended altogether. Two steamers have been sunk of Indian head, twenty miles below Washington, having been cut through by drifts.
